

PUROHIT TRAINING COURSE

By Chinmaya Veda Vidya Peetha, Chokkahalli

In our Indian culture, it has been a tradition that those who study the scriptures and impart religious knowledge are held in high respect and their education, livelihood, etc. is supported by the society. Unfortunately, the tradition is fast diminishing. However, we at Chinmaya Mission, Karnataka, are trying to salvage it by starting a residential course for the same. To impart education and livelihood to those who will, in turn spread our spiritual knowledge and culture and aid our religious rituals (i.e. the Purohitas) is truly noble. Hence, we request you to be a part of this cultural renaissance and contribute to this programme. You may sponsor a student for one or two years as under:
